Dear Dr. Kim:

I am pleased to enclose the official United States Patent No. 7,933,248 which matured from the above application on April 26, 2011.

Products using the invention covered by the patent should be marked appropriately with the patent number on the product or the packaging. The absence of such marking may limit one's right to recover from an innocent infringer who has not received notice of the existence of the patent.

Periodic renewal fees will need to be paid to keep this patent in force. The fees are payable at 3 ½, 7 ½ and 11 ½ years from the grant date of the patent to maintain the patent in force beyond 4, 8 and 12 years, respectively. We will send you a timely reminder for each renewal fee in advance of each due date for payment, but we strongly recommend that you also mark your calendar or docket the due date(s) for payment of maintenance fees for this patent. Please be sure to keep us advised of any change of your address to enable us to send you timely maintenance fee reminders. Also, please advise us immediately if there is any change of fee status; i.e., small entity or large entity. Maintenance fees must be paid on the basis of the patent owner's current fee status at the time the maintenance fee is paid.

The Letters Patent has not been examined in detail, therefore, it is suggested that you promptly review the patent to determine if any serious errors appear and advise us immediately so that we may take appropriate action. If you wish us to completely proofread the patent against the application file, please advise us accordingly.

We have enclosed a copy of the Issue Notification for your records.

Please acknowledge receipt of the Letters Patent by returning the enclosed copy of this letter to our office.

With best regards.

Sincerely,
BACON & THOMAS, PLLC

ISSUE NOTIFICATION

The projected patent number and issue date are specified above.

Determination of Patent Term Adjustment under 35 U.S.C. 154 (b)
(application filed on or after May 29, 2000)

The Patent Term Adjustment is 830 day(s). Any patent to issue from the above-identified application will include an indication of the adjustment on the front page.

If a Continued Prosecution Application (CPA) was filed in the above-identified application, the filing date that determines Patent Term Adjustment is the filing date of the most recent CPA.

Applicant will be able to obtain more detailed information by accessing the Patent Application Information Retrieval (PAIR) WEB site (<http://pair.uspto.gov>).

Any questions regarding the Patent Term Extension or Adjustment determination should be directed to the Office of Patent Legal Administration at (571)-272-7702. Questions relating to issue and publication fee payments should be directed to the Application Assistance Unit (AAU) of the Office of Data Management (ODM) at (571)-272-4200.
